19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

John 6:41-51

"Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother?"

Imagine that you were among the four hundred people who lived in Nazareth with Joseph, Mary and Jesus. You have known Jesus since he was a boy learning carpentry and other trades from Joseph and others in the small town, including yourself. You know that Jesus, like you had very little education; that he learned the Torah, but had limited, if any, ability to read and write. Then, the Jesus you know says, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever." What would you think? Would you give Jesus the opportunity to explain what he meant? Would you wait to see what Jesus did to demonstrate that he is "the living bread that came down from heaven"? In all honesty, we would probably have the same questions about Jesus. But now, we have the testimony of those who did believe in Jesus as "the living bread that came down from heaven," going back to the Apostles. Do we learn about Jesus by frequently reading and reflecting on Scripture? How do we imitate Jesus in our life?

School starts back on Thursday. Drive safe and watch for children coming from and going to school.

From the Office:

Wednesday of this coming week is August 15, which is the date we celebrate the Assumption of Mary. It is a holy day and since it falls on Wednesday this year, it is a holy day of obligation – we are obliged as Catholics to attend mass. There will be a school Mass at 8 a.m. We will have two masses at St. Agnes. They will be at 12:00 noon and 6:00 p.m.

What we celebrate on the Assumption of Mary is that when she died, she was 'assumed' body and soul into heaven. She did die, but her body was not buried and decayed in the earth. This is a grace we all hope to receive when Jesus returns in glory. When he comes, our mortal bodies will be raised and will be glorified, whatever exactly a glorified body is, and then our souls and bodies will live united for eternity. So we can say that the Blessed Virgin Mary received that grace ahead of time, but it's one all the saved will receive.

Brescia Sunday

Pope John Paul II said that "a Catholic University is without a doubt one of the best instruments that the Church offers to our age which is searching for certainty and wisdom . . . the Church should never fail to interest herself in this institution."

Students who attend a Catholic university not only receive a transformative education, but are also immersed in an environment with a dedication to service and giving back, where they can develop their faith in a values-oriented environment. Studies show that Catholic alums have higher graduation rates, lower student debt and higher post-graduation salaries than the national average. They are also likely to be very engaged in parish life and ministerial service.

We are asking you today to make a difference in Brescia's future by investing in the only Catholic university in Western Kentucky. Gifts of all sizes help create a solid foundation from which Brescia's mission can be realized. In an incredibly generous show of faith and support, the Diocese will be matching, dollar for dollar, gifts made to Brescia up to $25,000.00! Last year, our parishes collectively raised $26,753, which paired with the Diocese's match to total over $53,000 investment into Catholic higher education. This year we hope to partner with the Diocese to reach $60,000!

Brescia makes a difference in the lives of our students, our communities, and our Catholic family; and through your prayers and gifts, you can help make a difference at Brescia! Thank you!

PICNIC SUPPORT

St. Agnes Parish and the Uniontown Knights of Columbus are once again preparing for our annual picnic. This event is an opportunity for every member of our parish family to show unity. As a Christian community, we are continuously called upon to share in whatever way possible. Many of us, due to one reason or another, cannot give physical support to our picnic efforts, however, this does not mean you cannot help. We are asking for your prayers. Prayer is the spiritual food which makes it possible for us to live and work together as a Christian family. We ask that you offer daily prayers that we will have a successful picnic and good weather.

Wed, August 15th
There will be a dedication of a chalice at The 6 p.m. Mass followed by a meal at the KC Hall. All KC members and guests are invited and encouraged to attend.
