Holy Family

"Whatever you do," says St. Paul to the Colossians, "... do it in the name of the Lord Jesus. Give thanks to God the Father through Him." And so it is that we offer our gifts in the Eucharist "through Him, with Him, and in Him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit."

COMMUNION TO SICK – Joe Thomas

PEACE PRAYER

*Lord, Make Me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.*

*Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.*

For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

~St. Francis of Assisi

NEW YEARS REFLECTION AND PRAYER

As the old year ends and a new one begins, take time.

*Time to remember the struggles you faced,
And mistakes you might have made,
And maybe even loved ones you lost.*

*In every year, you experience heartache.
This one was no different.*

And in remembering, find a seed of hope hidden in yesterday.

*Remember how you've been blessed.
Relive when you found unexpected strength.
Recall where you saw God's great Spirit at work.
And know his mercy kept you going all this time.*

Recognize his mercy. Ask for his peace.

The peace that pours out every moment of every day from the wounds of Christ.

*Prepare us Lord for the New Year.
Lift us up and place in our hearts.
A renewed desire to know and worship you more.
Give us your abundant grace.
Shower us with your healing love.*

*May your eternal Kingdom reign in our hearts and our lives.
May the New Year show us once again your eternal mercy and glory.*

And let us sing your praises with great joy.

In Jesus name, Amen.

Qualified Charitable Distribution for John Paul II

You are probably already aware that if you are over age 70 ½, you must take an annual required minimum distribution from your traditional IRA. For some, these taxable distributions can have consequences by your raising gross income and/or reducing the deductible amount of medical expenses. Further, some retirees who make charitable contributions may not have enough total itemized deductions to exceed the standard deduction, effectively resulting in no tax benefit from their charitable gift. Some of these negative tax consequences can be lessened by making what is known as a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD), paid directly from your IRA to a qualified charity.

For example, if your required minimum distribution is $10,000 and you would like to make a charitable contribution of $3,000, you could directly distribute $3,000 from your IRA to the charity. That $3,000 is not included in your taxable income (though nor can you get a charitable contribution deduction for it), while the remaining $7,000 is still included in your taxable income. If you can not itemize your deductions (that is, if the standard deduction is higher than the total of all your itemized deductions), you would still have a $3,000 reduction in your taxable income for both federal and state taxes.

Though some restrictions apply, for a retiree who has to take a mandatory distribution and who typically makes charitable contributions, this is an excellent way to reduce a tax bill. Ask your tax advisor how a QCD might be of benefit to you while benefiting John Paul II.

NEW YEAR PRAYER:

Thank You Lord for giving me
The brand new year ahead.
Help me live the way I should
As each new day I tread.
Give me gentle wisdom
That I might help a friend,
Give me strength and courage
So a shoulder I might lend.
The year ahead is empty,
Help me fill it with good things
Each new day filled with joy
And happiness it brings.
Amen.
