Pentecost Sunday

One miracle of Pentecost was that, despite their diversity, each listener heard God's word in his or her own language. the meaning for stewardship is that, by sharing the gifts poured out on us by the Holy Spirit, we will be empowered to meet the needs of our brothers and sisters, whatever they may be.

From the Pastor's Desk

Coming up this Wednesday, June 12, I will have an Altar Server training at 6:00 pm. So if you're in 3rd grade or above, then you are welcome to come on Wednesday. It is indeed a privilege to serve the Lord and his people in the mass by assisting the priest in its celebration.

Later in June, on the 25th, we will have our annual Altar Server outing. It's not carved in stone yet but I think we'll be going to Sky Zone this year. We're still working out the details so we'll let you know as soon as we get everything set. We'll have some sign up sheets in church soon.

Father's Day is next weekend. We'll have a little gift for all you fathers at masses, as we do each year. We'll also make a contribution to the Shelter of Love. You can give items that are needed by parents to care for their babies or a monetary donation.

This weekend we celebrate Pentecost, which marks the end of Easter Season. Pentecost is about the gift of the Holy Spirit to us, of course. Sometimes it is also said to be the birthday of the Church, because it was the Spirit that empowered the first disciples of Jesus to go out from behind locked doors to begin proclaiming the Gospel.

There are seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. Do you remember them? They are: wisdom, understanding, knowledge, counsel, piety, fortitude and fear of the Lord. There are also twelve fruits of the Spirit. They are: charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control and chastity. These gifts and fruits are sure signs that the Holy Spirit is present and at work.

As Easter Season ends, we move into Ordinary Time in the Church calendar. Next weekend will be Trinity Sunday, followed by Corpus Christi, which is Latin for the Body and Blood of the Lord. Even though we celebrate these two particular things, it is still Ordinary Time.

I think that's it for this week, so until next week...

Fr. Randy

Remember, no matter what you face in life, do not let go of God's Hand.
